This year, all students and chaperones will visit Kent State University. Kent State University is a rural campus known for its history of activism. It is one of the largest campus in Ohio and is continually growing. It is known for its nursing programs, aeronautics degree, Fashion design/merchandising Programs, Pan African Studies program as well as its school of music performance and dance.

In addition, all attendees will also visit either Case Western Reserve University OR Cleveland State University. We will do our best to accommodate your first choice, but we do not guarantee it (tours will be based on space available). Case Western Reserve University is a private school well known for its medical, business, dental, and law schools. Its partnership with NASA with the NASA Glenn research Center is for aspiring astronauts, rocket scientist, and biological engineers. Cleveland State University is a public university with an urban campus located in the heart of downtown Cleveland. It offers 200 undergraduate and masters programs including the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, Monte Abuja College of business and urban studies programs. Cleveland state has a diverse student population and variety of student organizations.
