

New Approaches, Different Possibilities, and Uncharted Paths: Transforming Schools into Spaces of Belonging Where All Can Thrive

Thursday, April 10 • 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
& Friday, April 11 • 8 a.m. – 2 p.m.
Madison Concourse Hotel

Join committed colleagues from across the United States as we:

- Share school and district practices and research shown to have a positive impact on the educational experiences of multicultural students.
- Network, discuss and problem-solve with experts, leaders, and practitioners.
- Hear rich perspectives and ideas from students
- Learn from keynote speakers and others and leave with actionable ideas and tools.

The 2025 MSAN Institute speakers and breakout sessions will address the conference theme in relation to these focus areas:

1. Equity-Focused Leadership
2. Student Engagement & Belonging
3. Innovative Instruction & Inclusive Classrooms

Suggested Audience

Any district or school-level staff including superintendents, assistant superintendents/deputies, directors, managers, principals, teachers, engagement specialists, student services staff, etc.

Please visit the MSAN website for registration information: msan.wceruw.org

Questions? Contact MSAN's Project Manager, Connie Showalter, at connie.showalter@wisc.edu